WELCOME BACK!!

We have excellent staff development opportunities planned for you this year. Please take a moment and browse through the Update. Some things to look for are math, science, writing, and reading sessions which are designed for teachers and administrators. We have collaborated with the Principal's Executive Program and others to provide excellent training for principals. Stephanie Harvey training will be continued through Debbie Miller and Tanny McGregor. We are offering computer training online as well as two reading online courses. Barry Lane will be presenting a session on revision and there will be a regional conference on instructional coaching. We will also be repeating our Ruby Payne sessions in Teaching of Poverty. Participants will receive a certificate of credit for contact hours earned once they complete the training.

Training for Principals For the 2006-2007 School Year

WRESA is collaborating with the Principal's Executive Program, LEARN NC, Western Carolina University, and Buncombe County Schools to provide quality training for principals. Information related to this training was distributed to principals in June. Principals who are interested in the information or are interested in registering should contact Richard Greene at 828.418.0011, ext. 114 or email rgreene@wresa.org. Please register early!! Space is limited!

Senior Project Training

On June 9, 2006, high school principals and the Curriculum Council contacts were mailed a description of Senior Project training to be held on October 2 and October 30, 2006 at WRESA. The October 2 date is for teams from high schools with no prior Senior Project experience. October 30 is training for teams from high schools with prior Senior Project experience. If you need information, please contact Richard Greene at 828.418.0011, ext. 114 or email rgreene@wresa.org.

BARRY LANE

REVISION: How to Teach It, Learn It, Love It!

October 3, 2006

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration Fee: $80
(Lunch Provided)

Registration fee MUST be received before workshop date. Participant's registration will not be complete until their registration fee is received. Registration fee is non-refundable.

"They love to write, but how do I get them to love revision?" Revision is an ongoing, creative process, not simply the act of correcting a rough draft. Yet, many students groan or go limp at the prospect of revising their work. This idea-packed session, based on two of Barry Lane's books, After THE END and Reviser's Toolbox, will send you back to the classroom with scores of practical techniques and exercises to show students how to love revision as much as professional writers do. Teachers of all grade levels will leave inspired by Barry Lane's stories and practical tips. Registration Deadline: September 20, 2006

Debbie Miller

Reading Comprehension for Kindergarten – Grade 2

December 5-6, 2006

9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Registration Fee: $125
(Lunch Provided)

Registration fee MUST be received before workshop date. Participant's registration will not be complete until their registration fee is received. Registration fee is non-refundable.

One of the national leaders in early childhood education is Debbie Miller. Debbie, a former classroom teacher in the Denver Public Schools, is the author of Reading with Meaning: Teaching Comprehension in the Primary Grades and a video series, Happy Reading. This two-day training will focus on the following topics: creating classroom cultures of thinking, the thoughtful use of time, the Gradual Release of Responsibility Model, authentic response, book selection, and becoming aware of ourselves as readers. Please register early!! For more information about this session contact Richard Greene at 828.418.0011, ext. 114. Registration Deadline: November 17, 2006

TANNY MCGREGOR

Strategies That Work: Reading Comprehension for Grades 3-8

November 29-30, 2006

9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Registration Fee: $100
(Lunch Provided)

Registration fee MUST be received before workshop date. Participant's registration will not be complete until their registration fee is received. Registration fee is non-refundable.

With additional training needed on Strategies that Work and due to Stephanie Harvey not being with us on November 29-30, we have scheduled a person that works as a trainer with Stephanie. Tanny is the author of Concrete Bridges which will be published in the spring of 2007. She is a singer/songwriter of educational songs for teachers and students. She has done extensive training across the country. Some of the topics Tanny will address are as follows: strategic instruction in fiction and poetry and specific attention to non-fiction, comprehension in the content areas, authentic assessment, and materials from Stephanie's Comprehension Toolkit. The training will be interactive with participants talking, reading, and applying their thinking to topics discussed. Heinemann Book Company will be present for the purchase of books and the Comprehension Toolkit. Please register early!! For more information about this session contact Richard Greene at 828.418.0011, ext. 114. Registration Deadline: November 17, 2006

STAFF DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS

Reading! Reading! Reading! Enriching Your Reading Instruction through Web Resources

Online
Course
October thru
November

Registration Fee: $40

Registration fee MUST be received before October 1, 2006.

This session will be focused on helping teachers locate and use online resources for integrating their reading instruction. Strategies for using the internet as a means to both enlarge and enrich the classroom library, as well as engage reluctant readers will be shared. This is a good opportunity for teachers needing reading renewal credit. Session will be limited to 15 participants so register early! Participants must have access to the internet and email. Additionally, participants will need to have PowerPoint and Adobe Reader. Participants will be contacted by the instructor by October 1st. Upon completion of all course assignments (no later than November 30, 2006) participants will receive a certificate for 10 contact hours (equivalent to 1 CEU in reading). To register, go to www.wresa.org and click on Online Registration or complete the enclosed Registration Form and return it with your check to Kathy Carver at WRESA. Registration Deadline: September 22, 2006

Engaging Reluctant Readers and Creating a Context for Assessment

Online
Course
December thru
January

Registration Fee: $40

Registration fee MUST be received before December 1, 2006.

In this ten-hour online course, you will learn to put reading conferences at the center of your teaching. You will learn how to assess student reading abilities more accurately and how to plan effectively for reading improvement. You will learn how to manage your students' reading records and guide them in selecting "just right" books. You will learn to create instructional environments that foster life-long reading. You will explore strategies for getting students to choose to and engage in reading across the curriculum. You will discover what readily makes the most difference for helping struggling readers. Participants must have access to the internet and e-mail. Additionally, participants will need to have PowerPoint and Adobe Reader. Participants will be contacted by the instructor by December 1st. Upon completion of all course assignments (no later than January 31, 2007) participants will receive a certificate for 10 contact hours (equivalent to 1 CEU in reading). To register, go to www.wresa.org and click on Online Registration or complete the enclosed Registration Form and return it with your check to Kathy Carver at WRESA. Registration Deadline: November 17, 2006

Grades 3-5 Phase V Writing Training: Beyond Narrative Writing

November 17, 2006 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Registration Fee: $50

The purpose of this training is to provide professional development to address several questions:

- What are the expectations for the Grade 7 Writing Assessment? What are the skills that writers need to possess in order to perform successfully on the Writing Assessment? How can we help students build toward learning those writing skills and prepare for 21st century skills?
- What lessons can we learn from narrative writing that we can apply to reading and writing other kinds of texts including information texts?
- How can we teach students to write non-fiction so that they can transfer their skills to their everyday lives and also be prepared for middle school and high school writing challenges?
- How can we help students use informational models and other nonfiction texts to write with greater clarity and respond to texts?

If you have questions about this session, contact Carol Bennett at 828.418.0011, ext. 130. To register go to www.wresa.org and click on Online Registration or complete the enclosed Registration Form and fax to 828.665.7710 or call Kathy at 828.418.0011, ext. 118 or email kcarver@wresa.org. A certificate of credit will be issued at the end of the session. Registration Deadline: November 3, 2006

Grades K-5 Math Seminar --- "DMI" Developing Mathematical Ideas: Building a System of Tens October 2 - November 20, 2006 4:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. Registration Fee: $125

This DMI (Developing Mathematical Ideas) seminar is designed for teachers in grades K-5, support staff, and administrators. During this eight week seminar (every Monday evening October 2 - November 20) you will have an opportunity to explore the mathematics ideas of the elementary curriculum, to analyze children's thinking, and to read and discuss current research in mathematics education. The text you will use is organized around a series of cases written by teachers. Through discussing these cases, you will consider the underlying ideas of the base ten system, that direct learning, performing operations with multi-digit numbers, and working with decimals. Seminar assignments include reading the cases, writing reflections, and working with students. The presenter will be Helen Byrd from Henderson County Schools. The registration fee will cover the book for the class. Class limited to 20. Registration Deadline: September 20, 2006

CANCELLED

Grades 2-5 Math Session: "Fall" Into Geometry October 4, 2006 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Registration Fee: $40

This workshop is designed for Grades 2-5. Teachers will explore ideas to develop geometry vocabulary and understanding in their classrooms through games, literature, and folding activities that will wow teachers and students! The presenter will be Helen Byrd from Henderson County Schools. Registration Deadline: September 22, 2006

K-2 Math Session: Antsy About Algebra? December 11, 2006 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Registration Fee: $45

This K-2 workshop is filled with fun and ready to use lessons to build algebraic understanding in your classroom. Activities focus on balancing equations, patterns, and functions. An extensive packet of materials will be provided. The presenter will be Helen Byrd from Henderson County Schools. Registration Deadline: September 22, 2006

Creative Expression Session

October 12, 2006 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration Fee: $40

For art teachers, counselors, and mental health therapists who work with elementary students, as well as any person that works directly with students.

In this workshop participants will learn more about art therapy and how it addresses some of the common issues affecting our students. There will be hands-on opportunities to apply what is learned in the sessions. Even though we will be working with art materials, no previous art experience is required. Presenter will be Latessa Johnson, Student Services Director, Asheville City Schools. Registration Deadline: September 29, 2006

All I Want for Christmas is... The Latest Picture Books to Integrate Reading and Writing Across the Curriculum

December 12, 2006 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Registration Fee: $75

Students are never too old for picture books. In addition to all the picture books for use in the elementary grades, many of the newest picture books are appropriate for secondary students. This session will introduce participants to some of the newest and most engaging picture books that can be used as read-alouds to engage readers and writers in each of the subject areas. A balanced reading and literature program requires that students experience a variety of literary forms and genres. Teaching strategies will be modeled for helping students gain independence in reading for aesthetic and personal response, for information, and for critical analysis and evaluation. Each participant will receive a collection of picture books, as well as strategies to help meet the NC goals and objectives across the curriculum. The presenter will Carol Bennett, Communication Skills Specialist. Registration Deadline: September 29, 2006

Teaching to Poverty

(Day One)

November 16, 2006
9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration Fee: $60

Using Ruby Payne's Framework for Understanding Poverty, this workshop will cover the basics about the culture of poverty. We will discuss hidden rules and behaviors that impact our classrooms. This workshop will be the foundation for other in-depth workshops throughout the year as we delve deeper into how best to help these students. Each participant will receive a copy of Framework for Understanding Poverty. Presenter will be April Spencer, Teacher-On-Loan and Ruby Payne Certified Trainer. Registration Deadline: November 2, 2006

Children of Poverty: Now What?

(Day Two)

January 17, 2007
9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration Fee: $50

Prerequisite: In order to attend this session, you must have attended "Day One" of the Ruby Payne Training.

Understanding the characteristics of and issues that surround and impact our students living in poverty is the first step in being able to make a difference in their lives. This Day Two workshop in Ruby Payne's Framework for Understanding Poverty is the next step in working with our students who live in low socio-economic environments. We will first look at the discipline module and strategies for solving some of these issues. We will focus on the cognitive strategies that are undeveloped or underdeveloped in this population and will look at specific before, during, and after learning strategies that will help them be more successful at all grade levels. Each participant will receive a copy of Understanding Learning and Learning Structures Workbook. Presenter will be April Spencer, Teacher-On-Loan and Ruby Payne Certified Trainer. Registration Deadline: January 6, 2007

Please plan to attend if you register. If we receive your registration and the session is full, the schedule has changed, or the session is cancelled, we will contact you.

Checks for registration fee, if applicable, should be made payable to WRESA.

Due to trying to reduce our invoice costs, when registering for sessions, please mail check prior to the session date. If this is not possible, please bring it with you to the session.

For map and driving directions to WRESA go to www.wresa.org.
